Warning: This story contains content which is intended for readers over the age of 18.

I have included the entire book "His Assistant" Part 1 as a bonus at the end of this book.

Rachel had everything figured out. She was going to raise her baby close to home. Brad was going to follow his football dream.

Brad had other plans. He wanted Rachel and his child with him. There was no way he was missing out on time with his baby.

Would Brad be able to convince Rachel that she belonged with him, or would she decide to go it alone?

How would Karen react when she found out her brother was the father of Rachel's baby?

What would Brad's parents say when they found out the girl they thought of as a daughter for all those years was having their grandchild?

How would Rachel react when she found out that her mother had a secret of her own?
