1 What Is the Divine Soul Mind Body Healing and Transmission System? In the introduction, I reviewed and emphasized some key teachings of Soul Mind Body Medicine. These teachings and practical techniques have served hundreds of thousands of people's healing journeys. They will continue to serve humanity more. In this book, I will move from Soul Mind Body Medicine to the Divine Soul Mind Body Healing and Transmission System. Concepts and Wisdom of Soul, Mind, and Body for Everyone and Everything In ancient times, there was a renowned spiritual statement: Wan wu jie you ling "Wan" means ten thousand. In Chinese, "ten thousand" represents all or every. "Wu" means thing. "Jie" means all. "You" means has. "Ling" means soul. Therefore, Wan wu jie you ling means everything has a soul. Living things have a soul. For example, human beings, animals, insects, bacteria, viruses, trees, and flowers have souls. Wan wu jie you ling emphasizes that inanimate things also have souls. For example, a mountain, a river, a table, a chair, a house, a street, the name of a business, a star, a space, a relationship, and this book, all have souls. When you highly develop your spiritual channels, including your Third Eye to see spiritual images and your direct soul communication abilities to have conversations with other souls, you will be able to see a soul clearly in every being and object. You will be able to communicate with any soul. For example, when you stand in front of a mountain, simply say, "Dear soul of the mountain, please come." Instantly, the soul of the mountain will appear in front of you. You can have a conversation with the soul of the mountain, just as you have conversations with your loved ones and friends. Everyone and everything in the universe is made of matter. It is very easy to understand that tangible physical things are made of matter. The important secret and teaching I want to share is that even energy, light, and souls are made of matter. Energy is made of tiny matter. Light and souls are made of even tinier matter. All matter is in motion. Matter resonates and vibrates constantly. When matter resonates and vibrates, it radiates energy out. Energy is life force. In ancient times, energy was named chi or qi. Five thousand years of traditional Chinese medicine theory and practice have been based on the concept of chi. Qi gong was created about four thousand three hundred years ago by Peng Zu (pronounced pung zoo), the teacher of Lao Zi. Peng Zu created Zhi qi zhi dao. "Zhi" means manage or balance. "Qi" means vital energy or life force. The second "zhi" is a possessive particle; it functions like an apostrophe. "Dao" is the Way. Zhi qi zhi dao means the Way to balance qi. Peng Zu created this profound teaching with an entire system of practice, including singing songs and chanting mantras, meditations, visualizations, and movement. Peng Zu's system teaches practices in various positions -- lying down, sitting, standing, and walking, practices for the various systems and organs of the body, practices for specific times of day, and more. It is a powerful healing, rejuvenation, transformation, and enlightenment system. With it, Peng Zu lived to the age of eight hundred eighty. He is revered in China as the Long Life Star. Today, qi gong has spread from China and is widely popular in the world. Millions of people study qi gong to balance their energy for healing, as well as to boost their energy, stamina, vitality, and immunity. Qi gong is a great practice for rejuvenation and prolonging life. To return to matter and energy: In a living thing, matter resides inside the cells. Cells resonate and vibrate constantly. Cells contract and expand constantly. When cells contract, matter inside the cells transforms to energy and radiates out of the cells. When cells expand, energy outside the cells transforms to matter and returns to the cells. When this transformation between matter and energy is in relative balance, health and vitality result. The important wisdom and secret to know is that all matter carries a soul and all energy also carries a soul. Let me explain further by presenting the key theory that links matter, energy, and soul. Message Energy Matter Theory -- The Key Spiritual Guidance and Principle for the Divine Soul Mind Body Healing and Transmission System The term soul (ling in Chinese) has been used more in China and other Asian countries. Spirit has been used more in Western countries. Message is used more in the scientific field. Soul, spirit, and message are the same thing but with different names. Everything is made of matter. Matter includes atoms, protons, neutrons, electrons, quarks, leptons, and more. Matter radiates energy. Matter and energy never disappear. They transform from one to the other. Matter and energy are the carriers of message. Message is soul or spirit. Soul is the boss. Soul directs the transformation between matter and energy. This explains the one-sentence secret of soul healing, which is: Heal the soul first; then healing of the mind and body will follow. Soul has many layers. For example, a human being has a soul of the body (a "body soul"), which is our spirit or essence. Each human being also has a soul for each system, a soul for each organ, a soul for each cell, a soul for each cell unit, a soul for each cell DNA and RNA, a soul for each smallest particle of matter inside the cells, and a soul for each space between the cells. In fact, a human being has billions, trillions of souls, and more. For example, scientific study has shown that the brain has billions of cells. This tells us that a brain itself has billions of souls. Each cell has many cell units, DNA, RNA, and smallest matter. Each of these also has a soul. So there will be many billions and trillions more souls of cell units, DNA, RNA, and smallest matter. Every organ has billions and billions of souls. The whole body has too many souls to count. People understand from anatomy that a human being has many systems, organs, and cells. Many people are not aware that every system, organ, and cell has a soul. I'm honored to reveal an important soul secret and wisdom that: A human being has a complete soul system. How is this complete soul system organized? I will now formally release some important soul secrets: - The body soul is the boss of the system souls, organ souls, cell souls, cell unit souls, DNA and RNA souls, smallest matter souls, and space souls. (I revealed this soul secret in The Power of Soul.) - The soul of the cardiovascular system is the boss of all other system souls. - The soul of the heart is the boss of all other organ souls. - The souls of the heart cells, heart cell units, heart DNA and RNA, smallest matter in the heart, and spaces in the heart are the bosses of all other cell souls, cell unit souls, DNA and RNA souls, smallest matter souls, and space souls, respectively. This is important wisdom. It tells us that the body soul, the soul of the cardiovascular system, the soul of the heart, and the souls of the cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces in the heart are the vital souls to heal the body, systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces. Invoke these leader souls. Healing could be very fast. Let me give you one key practice to heal your whole body, including all systems, all organs, all cells, all cell units, all DNA and RNA, all smallest matter, and all spaces in the body at the same time: Practice for Whole Body Healing First say hello. This is Soul Power. Dear my body soul, soul of my cardiovascular system, soul of my heart, and souls of the cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces in my heart, I love you, honor you, and appreciate you. You have the power to heal my body, all systems, all organs, all cells, all cell units, all DNA and RNA, all smallest matter, and all spaces in my body. Do a good job. Thank you. Then, chant repeatedly, silently or aloud. This is Sound Power. Heal my whole body, my systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces. Thank you. Heal my whole body, my systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces. Thank you. Heal my whole body, my systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces. Thank you. Heal my whole body, my systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter, and spaces. Thank you. Chant for at least three minutes, the longer, the better. Hao! Hao! Hao! Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Mind blockages can also be important for one's healing. They are critical to one's spiritual journey. Mind means consciousness. To heal the mind is to transform the consciousness. I have a mind and consciousness. You have a mind and consciousness. Everyone and everything has a mind and consciousness. Our systems, organs, cells, cell units, DNA and RNA, smallest matter in the cells, and spaces between the cells all have a mind and consciousness. There are many kinds of mind blockages. Major mind blockages include negative mind-sets, attitudes, and beliefs, as well as ego and attachment. Mind blockages in our systems, organs, cel... From AudioFile

Zhi Gang Sha's heavily accented English often falls into a singsong cadence that becomes tedious as he narrates his somewhat-repetitious book about mind/body healing. The introduction, over an hour in length, reviews in detail what the book will cover. The production frequently gives specific directions to the listener, such as pausing the audio and repeating a particular chant for some specified period. The author also "transmits" more than 40 "soul cleansings" in the form of "mind-body-soul transplants" aimed at various personal issues, such as eliminating excessive guilt, dealing with relationship problems, or healing health problems in pets. The source of these transmissions is the "Divine," whose representative he claims to be.
