Editorial Review

Review

The European approach and viewpoint of this study is an interesting balance to the more usual American studies.

—Communication Booknotes

Drawing on a rich background of linguistics, literary theory, and cognitive psychology, van Dijk has made a substantial contribution to the advancement of the field ... the two books [News as Discourse and News Analysis] constitute a major contribution to communication research, documenting the state of the art of discourse analysis. The form of presentation is explicit and reflexive...

Christine Hughes:

As a university student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this News Analysis: Case Studies of international and National News in the Press (Routledge Communication Series) can make you feel more interested to read.
