Philip's Learn ALL the Notes on the Guitar Flash Cards From Philip Glaser Books

These cards are now recommended by guitar teachers. Other guitar flash cards on the market cover just the first 4 or 5 frets of the guitar, and show some common guitar chords and symbols. These 78 cards cover all the notes on the guitar up through the 12th fret. You learn the notes on the guitar in a systematic, efficient way - and even in a fun way, if you use them to play a short memory game with yourself every day. Test yourself with a few cards each day, and the repetition of seeing and using the cards will guarantee that you learn the notes -- and that you'll remember them. After a while you'll know the notes on the guitar so well that reading guitar music will not be difficult. You'll discover that you can just glance at a note of music, and know immediately where that note is on the guitar. With each card, you see a note, test yourself by naming the note and its location on the guitar, and then play the note. Just a few cards a day.
