From the Inside Flap

For as we enter the twenty-first century, there is a cry that would ring out from Jesus Christ of Nazareth, as He who neither slumbers nor sleeps, walks even today through the streets of London, Rome, New York, Beirut, Los Angeles, Delhi, His cheek wet with tears for a lost and fatherless generation neither cognizant of His presence nor caring.

But still He walks...unseen...and still He weeps.

Oh, and how long has He sought you, beloved? How many nights has He stood listening silently waiting in the shadows unseen by you? And as you lift up your tear-stained face to Him, half blinded by the radiance from that most beautiful of countenances, He reaches out His hand to you and His touch lingers on your cheek as He brushes away the tears that flow. And He smiles that most wondrous of smiles.

'You?' you mouth soundlessly.

And you hear His tender whisper: I have sought you all your life. Through all the pain, through the loneliness, I have sought you. Each time your heart broke soundlessly with the agony of not belonging, I sought you. Through each rejection, through each hour of despair, I sought you. I was there, loving you. Reaching out to you. It was Me all along. And as your eyelids gently close, as you are engulfed in His tender embrace and the tears fall, somewhere through the sands of time in that netherland betwixt sleeping and waking, you recognise that familiar presence and you too know that He was there. It was He all along.

About the Author

Wendy Alec's calling to the Body of Christ to work in the area of Creative Evangelism in the media, has been integral in the pioneering and establishing of Europe's first Christian Television Network, GOD TV. Wendy had originally intended to keep her identity as the "Unknown Prophet" anonymous--hence the lack of an authors name on the front cover. She explains, "I sensed during the writing of the journal that I dare not touch his glory, that these are not my words--this is not my work." That her identity is revealed here is for reasons of accountability alone.

THE DESERT PLACE

Beloved, I know that it has seemed a desert place.

I have seen your hands fall in despair even when no man has seen. And I have heard your voice cry out to Me, even in the midnight hour, when no man knew or thought that you were in pain.

I have seen the grieving of your heart when no one knew that you had grief to bear. And so My child, I would say to you this day, that as you have walked with Me month after month, year after year in humility, in faithfulness, where you have worshipped Me and adored Me behind closed doors where no man has seen--I would say to you this day--that where no man has seen, surely I, the Lord your God, your redeemer, your Father and your counsellor, that I have seen your heart. I have seen into the depths to the motives and intents of your heart.

Oh beloved, I see you as you worship Me, even in this time of darkness. Oh My child, I see you as you cling to Me even in this time of mundaneness where each day goes by so slowly. You have worshipped Me in spirit and in truth, you have brought great joy to Me when you have drawn near in My presence and have asked nothing but to commune with Me--for surely you have blessed the heart of My Father.

For you see, My child, you have come into My presence wanting to give to Me. You have come into My presence not wanting to take or to gain but to worship Me, to adore Me and to glorify My name.

And so, My child, the Father Himself would gather you as His great treasure, a pearl beyond value, priceless--for as you have placed His fellowship and the fellowship of His Spirit above wordly riches, above human gain, above recognition or power--so surely you have touched the heart of the Father.

And so I would say to you, that even as you have been faithful in the desert place, so in but a short while, there is coming a season upon you and your ministry, upon you and your family, where the rose shall bloom. A season where the bare branches shall bud forth.

A season where rivers shall spring forth in the desert and streams shall flow, where My hand shall move with greater power upon you and in time to come I shall pour out My Spirit in greater measure upon you, that men and women shall say, 'Surely the hand of the Lord God Jehovah is upon you.'

And so it is that doors shall open to you, that divinely ordained opportunities shall come to you. And in that day, you shall rejoice in your heart and know that, I, the Lord your God, am the rewarder of those who seek Me, the rewarder of those who love My presence.
