Editorial Review

From Booklist

Spanish speakers joyously continue to celebrate the travails of preteen Greg, whose mom thinks that a club de lectura (book club) is more fun than videojuegos (video games), and reading classics is a more entertaining way to spend the summer than watching terror movies on TV. Mom concludes the summer with her own version of summer's highlights in her photo album. Kinney's black-and-white cartoons are as lighthearted as Morán's carefree translation. Spanish speakers worldwide will connect with Greg as he makes fun of grown-ups without malice but with lots of candor. Grades 5-8. --Isabel Schon
