A Private Affair By Mike Warren

Sean is a muscle bound private in the military looking for an exciting change in his love life. As he searches, his bedroom becomes a revolving door; from his wife, to his lover, to his sexy new roommate. But eventually the door will swing wide open to reveal his erotic alternative sex life. He soon gets caught in a triangle of love, lies, deceit, and wild weekends, which will sway him in the wrong direction, and his exotic path will give the military a new reputation. He enters a world where his sexual interest has reached its peak, but the interest is out of the ordinary... Let's just say he will Be All That He Can Be. Will Sean get the best of both worlds or just simply turned out? Private Affair is the first part to this series that will have all people questioning their sexuality!

Editorial Review

About the Author

Mike Warren is a native Baltimorean who found his love for writing while securing his degree in Communications from Morgan State University. Although he had been writing since college, he didn't take it seriously until 2004 when he began writing his first book, A Private Affair. It received such high reviews and so controversial, that he followed up with a part 2, titled Sweet Swagger and part 3, Sir Yes Sir. He is currently working on his fourth book titled, "Just Make Him Beautiful" and will drop January 2013. Mr. Warren is a former U. S. Army Specialist and spends his free time watching movies or reading a good book. He is also in a loving relationship and still lives in Baltimore.
