Editorial Review

Review

"This is a great collection ... a solid look at what happened to Doomsday after the Death of Superman, and a good read." -- Michael Bailey

"A very comprehensive collection of Doomsday after The Death of Superman storyline. We get his origins, how the heroes of the DC (mainly Superman) deal with him and also how he was used by other villains in their schemes through out the DC Universe." -- Ryan Scicluna

"A must have for any true Superman fan." -- Shawn O'Brien

Praise for THE DEATH OF SUPERMAN:

"The tragedy proved to be a massive hit, receiving significant national news coverage and selling millions upon millions of copies. Spanning several different Superman titles, the arc was a blockbuster in every sense of the word... the final fight between Superman and Doomsday is a knock-out brawl for the ages." -- PASTE MAGAZINE

"An epic and carefully constructed narrative." -- BLOODY DISGUSTING

"Both in the universe and outside of it, DC toyed with the idea of a culture that had come to take the Man of Steel for granted. This was a time when heroes were getting darker and more extreme in their methods, and the style of the era didn't seem to allow for a character like Superman to keep his relevance. By removing Superman from the equation, we - and the characters in the DCU - learned how important Superman was as an icon, and his return was all the more impactful. This storyline brought the real and fictional universes together in a stirring realization of just how much Superman means to our culture." -- IGN
