Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

Dad, do you love me?

It's a question that haunts the deepest parts of our hearts. We bury ourselves in pursuits big and small, afraid to face the shame, unworthiness or loneliness echoing in the silence of a question unasked.

Yet something in us needs to know. We long to feel that we are unconditionally, extravagantly, irresistibly loved.

This book is your invitation to experience that lavish love finally and fully. In these pages you will begin a journey of discovering the good news Jesus revealed: that the Father loves you. You will uncover the lies that have kept you from Him and from His mercy. And you will sense the incredible joy of the strength, acceptance and love flowing from His heart into yours.

You are loved. You are accepted. You are home.

"A powerful invitation to know God as our Father, to experience His fatherly love and to witness that love to others in our everyday lives."--Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., archbishop of Philadelphia
