Feed Your Fish By Michael Madlener, Patrick Reeves

Michael Madlener, a successful Marketing Director in a large U.S. based company and Patrick Reeves the Creative Director of his own successful design firm, are both dads who love telling stories to their children. As friends for years they have shared their tales of fatherhood with each other. Here they have combined their experiences as fathers and story tellers, and created the loveable adventures of Winston and his imagination. Together they have collaborated to bring age appropriate and meaningful stories to life. The match is perfect, through Winston's adventures and wild imagination they share the universal values of kindness and heartfelt adventure from a child's point of view.
